- No drinking or eating in costume.
- No sitting in costumes.
- No laying costumes on the floor or ground
- Inventory and organize costumes from and to The Studio.
- Pass out flyers during the parade
- Volunteers are asked to purchase and wear SCBT branded attire.

Little Girls' Dresser and Chaperones:

This is usually little girls (Ginger Snaps and Pages). Assist in the little girls dressing room by helping the get dressed, help with their assigned costumes, escorting them to the ladies room and entertaining them while they wait to perform.

Girls' Dresser and Chaperones:

This is usually older girls. Assist in the girls room by helping them get dressed, help with their assigned costumes, and their accessories and hair changes.

Boys Dresser and Chaperones:

This is the boys. Assist in the boys' dressing room by helping them get dressed, help with their assigned costumes, and entertaining them.

Ladies' Dresser:

Help our wonderful mothers get dressed into their beautiful Victorian dresses that are difficult to put on, especially Mother Ginger's dress during intermission.

All Dressers need to enforce the following:

- No food in the dressing rooms.
- No food around costumes.
- No drinking or eating in costume.
- No sitting in costumes.
- Queue dancers in the hallway when told to by the Queuer.
- Please keep the dancers quiet, especially around the kitchen area.
- Dancers should not be allowed to graze all through the rehearsals and performances.
- No photos in the hallways during rehearsals or performances.
- Photos are permitted in the dressing rooms. Please be mindful of costume changes.
- The Dressers should definitely not let anyone around anything that can harm the costumes: lipstick is a good example.
- Little girls need help putting lipstick on. No crayons, felt tip markers, glitter, colored drinks, etc anywhere near costumes.

FOR ALL DRESSERS:

The last dresser in the room each evening should check that all costumes and accessories are organized and put away for the next day. Make sure all trash is in the proper receptacle and that left items are placed in the Lost and Found.
